RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE NATIONAL GRANGE

At its forty-fourth annual session

Atlantic City, N. J., November 16th–25th, 1910

From the Bulletin of Economic Intelligence, of the International Institute of Agriculture, September 1910, pages 215, 216.

« The National Grange, Order of Patrons of Husbandry, was founded in 1867, and is, to-day, without any doubt, the most powerful agricultural association in the United States. It counted, in 1891, more than 1.000.000 adherents ».

« The National Grange, profoundly interested in the cause of international fraternity and cooperation, and in the commanding movement for its promotion, which is the distinguishing mark and glory of our age, feels peculiar pride and satisfaction in the fact that it is in the field of agriculture that the work of international organization has achieved one of its broadest and most beneficent results.

We rejoice that the International Institute of Agriculture, the conception and in great measure the creation of one of our American fellow citizens, and a member of our own Order, has now won the confidence and support of almost all the great governments of the world, and become one of the chief servants of all agricultural peoples. Its scientific investigations and invaluable publications promise to put a stop, at no distant day, to all disastrous and demoralising speculation in agricultural products. We urge our own government to that conspicuous support of its activities which befits the greatest of agricultural nations: and we urge more generous and practical provision for the wide spread of its regular bulletins and various publications among the farmers of the United States.

We recommend the appointment by the administration of the National Grange of a special committee to promote the interests of the International Institute in this country and to make its work of greater and more constant service to our people ».
